

Assignment - 5

Here Black theme of the first poster clearly specifies the darkness of endless space.

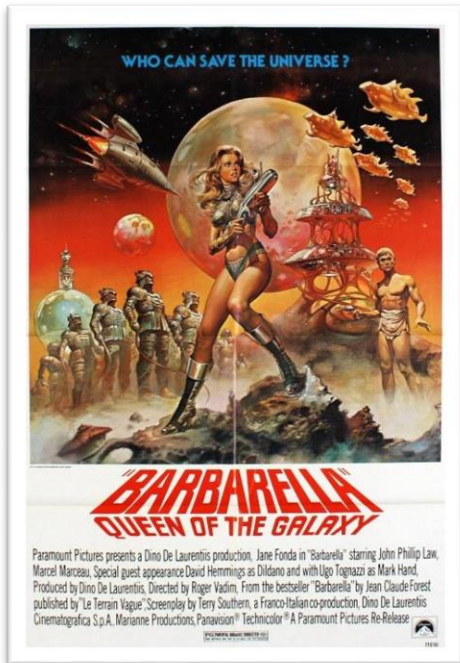

The second poster depicts tough research and calculation. Therefore, poster font is also related to mathematical calculations, this type of font used to specify the endless galaxy.

The tagline is clearly justified. We can see the main role of his poster looking at infinite space poster and also the planet Earth is also visible in the poster. Also, the name of the poster could have been placed a little lower and close to the edges. Humans used their scientific knowledge to travel different galaxies'.

The Barbarella (1968) poster place the main characters on a vibrantly colored, unearthly terrain. Barbarella is surrounded by a collage-like arrangement of characters and scenes that convey all the grand adventure promised by the story. The film stars as the title character, a space-traveller and representative of the United Earth government sent to find scientist Durand Durand, who has created a weapon that could destroy humanity. The supporting cast includes

This is the poster that I produced for forthcoming Sci-fi film "2071:

Hyperion: meaning an irregular moon of Saturn. The key element in my poster is Saturn and since Hyperion means an irregular moon of Saturn, I have also added a moon in my poster. As we all know that planets exist in the solar system, and its kind of related to solar system, which is kind of linked to space, so I have added an astronaut too. Also, according to me this font works with the theme of my poster. Exploration to Hyperion". Few things that I want to explain about this poster is : - \s• Mountains , Dessert ,Planets, space all this diverse things provide notion about exploration and two person standing there are the ones that went to adventure.\s• Hyperion is the Moon of Saturn. So those planets (Specially the rings as Saturn has rings around it)and stars offers an idea about what may be meaning of "Hyperion" to people who doesn't know about it.
